

Favorite HR resources

Society of HR Management SHRM.org

SHRM is a great resource for everything related to HR. Individuals can access some information without a membership. However, for toolkits, templates, Subject matter Experts and access to all things related to HR, a membership is well worth the investment. Premium content, HR lobby presence on Capitol Hill, fantastic organization to be connected with.

Full professional membership: $209 annually

Conferences and associations:

Local Society of HR management chapters: These groups hold monthly meetings to share advice, networking and hot topics. State councils hold conferences and workshops on a regular basis. National SHRM holds conferences and educational sessions.

State SHRM council: Click the website for associations in your community

NCSHRM.com:

SC.SHRM.org

SHRMGA.SHRM.org

HR.com

Free resource: simply create an account. Receive regular email updates on topics of interest (you choose the frequency and content). Free webinars, educational resources, tools and resources to help any HR department be more informed and effective. Membership: FREE

Capital.org Capital Associated Industries

Based in Raleigh NC. Membership organization (based on number of employees). Fantastic resource with access to Subject matter experts, HR attorney network, training workshops and educational conferences and events.